THE EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Processional Hymn: Awake My Soul - 577

Introit Suscepimus (Ps 48:8,9,1)

We have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple; according to thy Name, O God, so is thy praise unto the world's end: thy right hand is full of righteousness. (Ps) Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill. GLORY. We have...

Collect

O God, whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth: we humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which be profitable for us; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading Wisdom 18:6-9

That night was made known beforehand to our fathers, so that they might rejoice in sure knowledge of the oaths in which they trusted. The deliverance of the righteous and the destruction of their enemies were expected by your people. For by the same means by which you punished our enemies you called us to yourself and glorified us. For in secret the holy children of good men offered sacrifices, and with one accord agreed to the divine law, that the saints would share alike the same things, both blessings and dangers; and already they were singing the praises of the fathers.

Gradual Esto mihi (Ps 31:3; 71:2,1)

Be thou my strong rock, and house of defence: that thou mayest save me.
✠ In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

Second Reading Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Brethren: Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the men of old received divine approval. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was to go. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore. These all died in faith, not having received what was promised, but having seen it and greeted it from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on earth. For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them. By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer up his only-begotten son, of whom it was said, "Through Isaac shall your descendants be named." He considered that God was able to raise men even from the dead; hence he did receive him back and this was a symbol.

Alleluia Magnus Dominus (Ps 48:1)

Alleluia. Alleluia. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill. Alleluia.

Gospel Luke 12:32-48

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms; provide yourselves with purses that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. "Let your loins be girded and your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the marriage feast, so that they may open to him at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes; truly, I say to you, he will put on his apron and have them sit at table, and he will come and serve them. If he comes in the second watch, or in the third, and finds them so, blessed are those servants! But know this, that if the householder had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would have been awake and would not have left his house to be broken into. You also must be ready; for the Son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect." Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for all?" And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master when he comes will find so doing. Truly I tell you, he will set him over all his possessions. But if that servant says to himself 'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants and to eat and drink and get drunk, the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will punish him, and put him with the unfaithful. And that servant who knew his master's will, but did not make ready or act according to his will, shall receive a severe beating. But he who did not know, and did what deserved a beating shall receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much is given, of him will much be required; and of him to whom men commit much they will demand more."

Offertory Antiphon Populum humilem (Ps 18:28,32)

Thou shalt save the people that are in adversity, O Lord, and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud: for who is God, but the Lord?

Offertory Hymn: Thine Arm O Lord - 517Prayer over the Offerings

O God, who didst ratify the manifold sacrifices of the law by the one perfect sacrifice of our redemption: mercifully accept the oblation of thy bounden servants, and sanctify them with that benediction wherewith thou didst bless the gifts of Abel thy servant; that what each hath offered to the honour of thy majesty may be profitable unto all for their salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Preface I of the Lord's Day: God the Father

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God, Creator of the light and source of life, who hast made us in thine image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; ever more praising thee, and saying:

Communion Antiphon Gustate et videte (Ps 34:8)

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in him.

Communion Hymn: Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence - 197Postcommunion Prayer

Grant, O Lord, that the power of thy healing may mercifully cleanse us from all our perversities: and lead us henceforth in the paths of righteousness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recessional Hymn: Come Labor On - 576

If you would like to have a Mass offered for someone, please e-mail Father Armando at fr.armando.alejandro@ordinariate.net with the Person's Name, whether they are living or deceased, and the potential date you would like to have the Mass offered. The suggested donation to the Church is $10, but do not let that be a deterrent to having a Mass offered for a loved one.

Declaration of Intention before Mass

I intend to assist at this celebration of the Mass and the consecration of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to receive the same Body and Blood according to the rite of Holy Church, to the praise of Almighty God, and of the whole Church triumphant; for my own benefit, for the benefit of the whole Church militant and expectant; for all who have commended themselves to my prayers in general and in particular, (especially. . .) and for good estate of the Holy Catholic Church.

The ✠ Almighty and most merciful Lord grant unto us joy with peace, amendment of life, time for true repentance, the grace and comfort of the Holy Ghost, and perseverance in good works. Amen.
